Chingford, Newsletter
Sunday 5th July 2020
4th Sunday after Trinity

“The more rooted our lives are in receiving revelation from God, the more we know God’s joy, and the more we rejoice in God’s plan of salvation and his work in this world. Today we have an opportunity to experience the delight of our heavenly Father as we penetrate the mystery of his Son and receive the grace of revelation that brings us peace, joy and happiness.” ‘Praise the Father, the good and holy Creator who blesses his children with the grace of revelation and the gift of deep and lasting joy.’
