Sunday 19th July 2020
16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“One of the common reasons why people don’t become Christians or a member of the Catholic Church is ‘because the Church is full of hypocrites.’ This is a hard one to deal with because it’s true at so many levels, but one possible response might be: ‘Ah, well but don’t worry: one more won’t make any difference.’ Of course, the Church is full of hypocrites, but it is also full of saints, men and women who strive to live holy lives.” ‘St Michael the Archangel, illustrious leader of the heavenly army, defend us in the battle against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of darkness and the spirit of wickedness in high places.’ Bible Alive Jul’20
