

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY
TIME 30TH AUGUST 2020

“Jesus knows that following him will inevitably cause us suffering: ‘If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me’ (Matt.16:24). We have to subdue our independence and self-will in order to do God’s will. This is costly because it means letting go of what we would prefer to do. If we do God’s will, Jesus promises that he will reward us: ‘he will repay every man for what he has done’ (v.27). This hope gives us the grace and strength not to count the cost. It also sustains us.” ‘Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labour and to ask for no reward, save that of knowing that we do your will.’ (St Ignatius Loyola). From Bible Alive Aug 2020
