

Parish of Christ the King Chingford, Newsletter

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 6TH SEPTEMBER 2020

“Consider this, if you will: when a family gathers together for a meal and says grace, Jesus is beside them. Or whenever just two or three of us gather to pray or read the Scriptures, Jesus is right there with us. Or whenever we say to someone in distress or sick or in trouble, ‘Do you mind if I say a prayer for you and with you?’ Jesus is right there in our midst. Or whenever we go on pilgrimage to Lourdes or Fatima or Rome, Jesus is alongside us. How can we be sure of this? How can we know? By trusting and relying on the promise of Jesus: ‘For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them’ (Matt. 18:20 NIV).” ‘I ask for the angels in heaven to be among us. I ask for the abundance of peace. I ask for full vessels of charity. I ask for the rich treasures of mercy. I ask for the cheerfulness to preside over all. I ask for Jesus to be present, for whenever two or three gather in his name he is present among us.’ (Adapted from a prayer of St Brigid). From Bible Alive Sept 2020
