TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 11TH OCTOBER 2020 (Day of prayer for prisoners and their dependants)

"The punchline is sobering: 'many are called, but few are chosen' (Matt. 22:14). The wedding clothes signify the clothes of baptism: baptism is both the gateway to the Christian life and also empowers us to live a life of grace. We have been invited to the wedding feast, but we must respond to the call of our vocation to live a holy life, day by day. Lord, today may I put on the garment of salvation and remind myself of the great grace of baptism with which we are clothed." From Bible Alive Oct'20
